

How Can Mike Help?

One of my priorities as a United States Representative is to determine the needs of Delawareans. With the help of my Washington and District staff, I want to meet and exceed your expectations for these services. Whether you need help with a federal agency, a possible service academy nomination, or you just want some ideas on visiting Washington, D.C.; my staff is there to help you through this process. For your convenience, the following services are available:

Communicating with Federal Agencies

Service Academy Nominations

Flag Requests

Grants/ Federal Funding

Internship Programs

Visiting DC

Government Services

Frequently asked questions

If the information that you need is not listed above, you can schedule an appointment to meet with the district staff in either of my district offices located in Wilmington or Dover.
