

Castle Honors Winning Artist (The Cape Gazette)

July 1, 2008

Each year Rep. Mike Castle can pick one artist's work to be Delaware's winner of the annual Congressional Art Competition. This year, Sunju Hwang, who is a student at Cape Henlopen High School in Lewes, was the winner. Her painting now hangs in the underground hallway that connects the House Office Buildings with the U.S. Capitol. Hwang is shown with Castle during her Wednesday, June 25 visit to his office for the 2008 Congressional Art Competition winners' ribbon-cutting ceremony.
