

Castle Statement on Election of John Boehner as Majority Leader -- February 2, 2006

Washington, D.C. -- Delaware Congressman Mike Castle released the following statement today regarding the election of John Boehner as the House Republican Majority Leader.

"Today's election of John Boehner as Majority Leader allows the Republican Party to finally take a positive step towards unity. I believe John Boehner will be an effective leader, one who realizes the importance of many of the GOP initiatives, such as equal education for all and fiscal responsibility. I look forward to working with him in this new capacity."
